Petaluman's Truck Taken By Escapes

SAN RAFAEL, Mar. 26.—Two of three boys escaping from the Sonoma State home were captured Sunday night after they had abandoned a stolen truck near the San Rafael-Richmond ferry landing.

James Jones, 14, who with the Ortiz brothers, Tony and Frank, stole a truck belonging to Natale Carasali, Petaluma, for their flight from the institution, was arrested at 11:30 by Gus Truett and I. A. Carbine. He was attempting to hitchhike across the bay.

The second member of the trio was taken into custody at six o'clock Monday morning by San Rafael Police Officers Phil Le Cornec and Marvin Hoy, acting on the hunch that the Ortiz brothers might try to catch the first ferry to Richmond. Only Tony, the younger brother, was there.

Tony told officers a weird tale of how he had come from Angeles, stealing many cars abandoning them along the v to "spring" his brother from Sonoma State home. He said had stolen one car in San Raf

Not until Tony joined Ja Jones in the custody of Pr tion Officer Edmund T. B did the officers suspect To story as phoney. He and Ja were wearing almost ident "issue" clothing from the ho Under questioning Tony admi that he too was making his g way.

The two boys were turned to the custody of the juve court officer, Edmund T. Bl and held until officers from home came to San Rafael them Monday morning.

Officers believe Frank O older brother, caught a across the bay.
